Updates

MANY THANKS!

To the people who furnished refreshments for coffee time on Sundays for the month of October. They were Harley Eckrut, Raina & Carter Parsons, Vada Bockhorn, Avery & Sherry Willenborg and the Gary Parsons Family.

If anyone would like to participate, please let Rea Wiruscheske or Marge Kretschmar know. Goodies can be store bought or homemade. We would like to keep the tradition of Coffee Fellowship going.

This Saturday, Halloween, the Davis Spring neighborhood will be hosting their annual Spooktacular in the park. They are in need of volunteers to help run the booths and judge the costume contest. If you are in need of volunteer hours, or just want to help, please arrive by 9:45am and plan to stay until 11:45am

Be sure and check out all of the upcoming Youth Activities for November. There's sure to be something that everyone can participate in!

Library Notes - Suggested Reading

Suggested Reading

By: Donna Estes

SLOW WALTZ AT CEDAR BEND - by: Robert James Waller
(author of The Bridges of Madison Co.)

This is mystery and a love story, about love at "first sight". Michael, a 40-year old professor, meets another man's wife, Jellie Braden, at the university where he teaches. She has a love of India and a secret. Eventually she leaves and returns to India. This story tells of Michael's search for her in the vast country of India and how he ultimately finds her. If you liked The Bridges of Madison County you will like this book too.

THE LAST PROMISE - by: Paul Richard Evans (one of my favorite authors)

This book is set in Italy, amongst the vineyards of a little town called San Donato in the Valarno Valley. The book begins with a young woman, Eliana, telling her life story to a stranger while sitting poolside in Florence. She is American and so is the stranger, who is intrigued by all she says. While reading the book you can actually picture the Tuscany countryside and see and hear all the everyday activity going on. It is a nice read with a very nice ending.

Next time your children want to watch a movie check out the selection of VCR tapes/ DVDs in the LOL library. The audio-visual shelf is located in the Junior High Sunday school room. We also have several, self-help books with accompanying cassette tapes for checkout. These items are located in the Senior High Sunday school room.

You check out these audio-visual items just as you would a book - by putting your name, the name of the item you are checking out and the date in the BLUE BINDER, on the top shelf of the bookcase (beside the door) in the Senior High Sunday school room. PLEASE DO NOT RESHELF BOOKS. Put them in the return basket next to the children's book shelf at the back of library. IBe sure to cross your name out of the book when you return a book/video/DVD.

WHAT IS ADVENT?

Advent is the season that begins the liturgical year. It consists of four Sundays starting with the Sunday closest to November 30th. The word "advent" is derived from the Latin adventus, which means "coming" or "arrival." In the societies of the Roman empire, the word adventus referred to the arrival of a person of dignity and great power -- a king, emperor, or even one of the gods. For Christians, Advent is the time when the church patiently prepares for the coming of the King of Kings, Jesus Christ.

WHAT IS THE CHURCH'S

FOCUS DURING ADVENT? Advent is the first part of a larger liturgical season that includes Christmas and Epiphany and continues until the beginning of Lent. Even though Advent occurs in the month of December and is usually considered to be a prelude to ( continued on page 4 )

REMEMBER IN PRAYER THOSE WHO ARE SUFFERING FROM ILL-NESES:

Ruby Ivy, Martha Orr, Fran Hendrix, Junette Gowen, George & Esther Liardon, Alberta Otto, Dot Harrington, Joy Warriner, Ella Symank, Lynsey Thurman, Loraine Bazan, Angie Parr, Jordan Deathe, Gladys Soiseth, Harriett Rohne, Christian Bazan, Nick Maddern, Elvira Pelphrey, Robert Sopronyi, Diann Sowell, Deb Durling, Cindy Kassel, Nic Shappe, Reileigh Mace, Teresa Plessala, Jeannie Jones, Robert Keller, Katelyn Carter, Patricia Zotzky, Mary Ann McGuire, Terry Kinstley, Rev. Allison Hoenen, Rev. Jenning Hoenen, Russell Anderson, Kelli Egan, Faye Edwards, Laverne Welch, Steve Oswald, Lauretta Bennett, Ann Nelson, Clyde Czajkowski, Aaron Wood.

What Is Advent Continued:

Christmas, it is not simply about waiting for the birth of Christ. Advent is as much about preparing for Christ's return on Judgment Day. Indeed, the Advent season focuses on Christ's threefold coming -- past, present, and future. First, we remember the Lord's humble first coming in Bethlehem two thousand years ago. Second, we give thanks for His present and continual coming to us through Word and Sacrament. Finally, we look forward with hope and longing to His second coming in glory to judge the living and the dead on the Last Day.

Advent's four Sundays are thematically arranged to concentrate on different aspects of Christ's coming. The first Sunday in Advent deals with Christ's triumphant arrival in Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, the event that marked the beginning of His passion (Mark 11:1-10). The second Sunday introduces the prophetic message of John the Baptist, the one who urged Israel to prepare for the coming of the long-awaited Messiah (Luke 3:1-6). The third Sunday focuses on the content of John's preaching, especially his call to the people to repent and his emphasis on the coming Messiah as the One who will baptize "with the Holy Spirit and with fire" (Luke 3:7-18). The final Sunday in Advent is the bridge to Christmas with its attention to the miracle of Christ's conception in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary by the power of the Holy Spirit (Matthew 1:18-25 and Luke 1:26-38).

WHAT IS THE LITURGICAL COLOR FOR ADVENT?

Purple is the traditional color for the season of Advent. Purple was the most costly dye in ancient times and was therefore used by kings to indicate their royal status. Purple also signifies the repentance of God's people as they patiently await the arrival of their Lord. In more recent times, some churches have adopted blue as the color for Advent. Blue represents hope, expectation, and heaven. It is also the color associated with the Blessed Virgin Mary in art and iconography.

Kindred Sisters invite all ladies and friends of Lord of Life to join them on the First Tuesday morning of each month. Tuesday, November 3, 2009 at 10:30 am, we will leave from Lord of Life to visit our shut-in member, Ruby Ivy. Then back to Church by 11:30 to give our "BOOK REPORTS" and for lunch in the Café. Virginia Pfluger and Judi Rusk are our hostesses.

"Meet Me At The Library" was Kindred Sisters program for October. Lord of Life's Librarian, Donna Estes presented the program before lunch served in the Café. Donna amazed us with her knowledge and love of books ... and of the LOLLC library. We each went home with a different book, excited to read it after her brief review of the various books. At our November Kindred Sisters meeting, we will all give our "Book Report."

KS's have bought and paid for the chairs in the café. In honor of Harriett Rohne and support of breast cancer, Kindred Sisters donated $100 to the TX Mamma Jamma Ride on Oct 10th.

Reminder to all LOLLC Members and friends:

Lutheran World Relief (LWR) Stamporee project. Kindred Sisters, along with asking everyone in LOLLC congregation, will help save and collect stamps to be forwarded to the LWR Stamporee. THANKS ... the box is filling up!!!
